

A Level History

Entry requirements

5 or more GCSE passes, including, English, Mathematics, Science and History grade 5 or above to study A level History.

Course Outline

History is the study of past events, particularly in human affairs. At Oasis Hadley we study the AQA A level History course.

Key topics explored in A level History:

- Causes of the Cold War
- Key events of the Cold War
- Religious change in Tudor England
- How the Tudor dynasty was established

Assessment

Paper 1: The Tudors: England 1485-1603 – 2 hours 30 minutes

Paper 2: Cold War 1945-1991 - 2 hours 30 minutes

Coursework: A 3000 word piece of coursework answering a question of your choice. This will include independent research.

Career Pathways:

Law,
Politics,
Public sector,
Civil Service,
Business,
Marketing,
Journalism,
Economics,
Teaching,
Academia,
Insurance,
Social research,
Archaeology
Curation (museums, galleries, archives and libraries)

Alumni destinations

Melisa Eren – University of Bristol
Jake Rondeau – King's College London
Adam Bejaoui – Queen Mary University
Ben Newton – Southampton
Ellen Field – Cardiff University